

Zed Yago UPDATE

Hi y'all.

It's been making the rumour rounds, but here's the Word - I've hooked up with Zed Yago, a legendary german heavy band... we're working round the clock to get the new cd finished and then we'll play live.

here are some pics, soundbites, and links for you... I LOVE this music, haven't really played in this style since I was a kid - it's really back-to-the-roots for me and I'm having a ball.

Hope you like it, too - ps not to worry, all my other projects are current and in motion -
